

North Front Street Water and Sewer Project

The North Front Street Water and Sewer Project is a City of Wilmington lead project, this project will replace both water and sewer lines between Chestnut and Walnut streets along North Front Street. The City has awarded the contract with construction planned to start in March 2022.

