

PS-35 Redirect and Junction Box Rehabilitation

The PS-35 Redirect and Junction Box Rehabilitation project will allow for the rehabilitation of a manhole and a junction box that have become deteriorated. In order to rehabilitate the manhole and the junction box, a force main will need to be redirected. The project will also include bypass pumping to allow for the work to be completed.

As of March 2022, the project is in the design phase.

